CONTACT IS LOST WITH JAP FORCES RETREATING MIDWAY

U. S. DESTROYER LOST BUT ADMIRAL NIMITZ REPORTS NEW DAMAGE TO FOE

By WALTER B. CLAUSEN.
PEARL HARBOR, June 8.—(AP)—A once mighty Japanese naval force, reported to constitute the bulk of that country's sea power, today limped westward in desperate retreat from Midway Island, its proud units pounded by an American defense force at a shattering offense.

The enemy appears to be withdrawing, said Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet. "Contact was lost during last night."

But even should the Japanese make good their escape, it will be only at the cost of at least three warships sunk, one or more others damaged and the virtually complete destruction of their protecting air arm.

Against this formidable score the only announced American losses in equipment were one destroyer sunk by a submarine, one aircraft carrier hit by a bomb and some planes missing.

Loss of the U. S. destroyer was acknowledged in the same communiqué in which Nimitz told of the enemy's apparent withdrawal. But it was offset by official word that a Jap destroyer also had been sent to the bottom and that additional damage had been inflicted on two enemy cruisers.

Destroyer Crew Saved.
The crew of the lost U. S. destroyer, Nimitz said, "with small loss of life." The admiral was uncertain whether the report of fresh damage to Japanese cruisers deferred to Japanese cruisers previously damaged or represented entirely new successes.

As the three-day battle of the Central Pacific seemed to be ending, Nimitz said, "what was likely the greatest victory of American naval history, messages of congratulation began to arrive at Nimitz headquarters here."

Gen. Douglas MacArthur advised the admiral from Australia. "The prime minister of Australia," Nimitz said, "asked me to join his felicitations."

Texas Provided Ten Per Cent of Sunday Recruits

By The Associated Press.
More than 1400 sons of Texas joined 12,226 other young Americans Sunday in a vow to avenge Pearl Harbor.

They were inducted into the navy as part of a nation-wide average-Pearl Harbor enlistment program exactly six months to the minute after the Japanese attack June 7 on that Hawaiian stronghold.

A late check showed 800 to 1,000 inducted in ceremonies in the Dallas recruiting district at Dallas, Fort Worth, Longview, Tyler, Abilene, Lubbock, Sherman, Big Spring, Wichita Falls, Canyon (Amarillo Station), San Angelo, Paris and Waco.

In the Houston district 233 were inducted at Beaumont, 150 at Austin, and 139 at Corpus Christi. There was no ceremony at Houston because of the induction there eight days previous of 1,000 men in an "Avenge the U. S. S. Houston" drive.

NEW DESPERATE JAP EFFORTS BREAK AMERICA'S AIR AND SEA POWER IN PACIFIC EXPECTED

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER.
WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—Desperate new Japanese efforts to break the growing might of America's air and sea power in the Pacific were predicted in informed quarters here today as the only course left open to the enemy, now clearly on the defensive.

Subsequent to the United States victory in the battle that started with the repulse of a huge attacking force at Midway Island last week, authorities said that the Japs must either initiate new operations somewhere along the sweeping defense line that runs from Alaska to Australia or else be prepared to accept a complete defeat even before the grand offensive of the United Nations starts rolling in the Pacific.

Meanwhile the armada of battleships and aircraft carriers, cruisers and destroyers which steamed into what appears to have been a trap at Midway, apparently had withdrawn.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander of the Pacific fleet, said in a communiqué from Pearl Har-

SENATE VOTED TO INCREASE MINIMUM SERVICE PAY $50

LAFOLLETTE LED FIGHT ADOPTED HIGHER SCHEDULE SET BY HOUSE

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—The senate voted today to increase the minimum pay in the armed forces to $50 monthly, to raise that of first class privates and corresponding ratings to $64 and to make all pay increases effective as of June 1.

Action came on a motion of Senator LaFollette (Prog-Wis) to return to conference a military pay adjustment bill and to accept house amendments.

LaFollette's motion was adopted after Senator Austin (R-Vt) had filed a conference report outlining a compromise proposal agreed on by a joint senate-house committee. This compromise would have fixed the minimum pay at $42, with first class privates and others of equal rank receiving $50.

By adoption of LaFollette's motion, the senate instructed its conferees to carry out the necessary parliamentary procedure to approve the $50-$64 pay scale previously voted by the house.

LaFollette said these formalities ought to be carried out immediately and the revised conference agreement approved and sent to the house for final legislative action.

Th vote was 58 to 20 to adopt LaFollette's motion.

Austin told the senate that under the compromise it would be possible for army buck privates who were sent overseas to draw $60.20 a month.

He pointed out that the bill carried a provision boosting the basic pay 20 per cent for service outside the continental United States. He said soldiers could receive $5 additional pay monthly as a prize for marksmanship.

Before the senate convened most republican members had indicated opposition to the compromise.

Mandatory Loan Bill.
WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—Two members of the senate agricultural committee drafted a bill today to provide mandatory loans at all parity prices on basic agricultural commodities for this year's crops.

"In view of the low and constantly declining prices of the grains and of cotton," Senator Bankhead (D-Ala) and Russell (D-Tex) said.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—President Roosevelt indicated today a decision today on the issue of drafting youths 18 and 19 years old for the nation's fighting services, calling in Major General Lewis E. Hershey, selective service director, to talk over the problem.

Mr. Roosevelt has taken no position publicly on the question of drafting youths in this age group, who now are exempt from selective service. Hershey has pointed out that in every war the country has called on youths of 18 and 19 to augment its armed services.

The victory—although the admiral refrained from saying the loss of contact with the enemy fleet was lost sometime Saturday night.

In Washington, Admiral Ernest J. King, commander in chief of the United States fleet, declared at a press conference that the battle just ending might decide the course of the war in the Pacific, depending on the extent of damage inflicted on the enemy.

Without relating statistics, Admiral King said the Japanese had thrown the bulk of their sea power into the effort to take Midway, but that the army and navy had been prepared for just such an attempt. Land based aircraft "played a big part" in repelling the attack, King said.

The gravity of the action at Midway for the United States was emphasized by King with the assertion that Pearl Harbor, the fleet base for which Midway is the westernmost outpost, "must be held at all costs" because it is "the key to the Pacific."

MODEL GASOLINE RATIONING PLAN IS READY EAST COAST

PRESIDENT EXPECTED ADDRESS NATION ON GAS, RUBBER SITUATION

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—President Roosevelt indicated today to a house committee that he might make a fireside chat to the people on the rubber and gasoline problems as soon as he completed a study of the situation and assembled the facts.

The committee, headed by Representative Kieberg (D-Tex), was created by an informal meeting of legislators opposed to nationwide gasoline rationing until the reasons for it were fully developed and the "facts" presented to congress.

Accompanied by Representative Lea (D-Calif) and Holmes (R-Mass), Kieberg called on Mr. Roosevelt to make known the committee's position, which he said was supported by approximately 250 house members.

"We had a wonderful conference with the President," the Texan asserted, "and we discussed the rubber situation, we discussed the gas situation, and the President told us he was at present engaged in making as intensive a study as possible looking toward the ascertainment of facts, not fiction, on the problem involved in looking toward rubber conservation. And when he had the information that would enable him to give the people some facts and reasons, he was going to tell them about it."

"And pending that," Kieberg continued, "he said he should not get too excited or worried. He said that there had been no nationwide gas rationing up to date, that there was no gasoline shortage west of the Alleghenies and to take troubles as they come, not to borrow them in advance; and when he knew enough of the salient facts, he would present them to the people and make such requests as he felt proper to give the people an opportunity to do their level-headed best in the war effort."

The Chief Executive listened attentively, the Texan remarked, to the presentation made by his committee. He said that he "thoroughly satisfied" with the study and attention Mr. Roosevelt was giving the situation.

"I don't believe anybody knows the facts on rubber today," Kieberg declared.

Universal Use of Enriched Flour Is Predicted Shortly

By FRANKLIN MULLEN.
CHICAGO, June 8.—(AP)—Within a few weeks the nation is expected to be almost 100 per cent on a wartime body and nerve building diet of enriched, vitamin-packed flour and bakery foods, milling trade authorities said today.

They said that what started out in January, 1941, as a campaign to encourage use of the newly developed health-giving flour had turned into a complete victory. Many mills now were making only enriched flour for the so-called family trade and soon it will be difficult for the American consumer to buy anything else.

Furthermore, they said the nation's flour consumption was expanding because of wartime conditions, and it probably would be the largest in years. No rationing of bread or use of substitutes would be necessary, however, for domestic wheat supplies were by far the largest on record—equal to two years' normal requirements, they added.

Government health authorities encouraged manufacture of enriched flour, explaining that a population receiving a diet fairly adequate in vitamins, minerals and other nutritive essentials was better able to stand the stress of war. Bread was chosen as the medium through which certain vitamins and food minerals could be put into general consumption because they are natural elements of wheat and because bread is in universal use.

DOMINANT IMPORTANCE OF AIR SUPERIORITY PROVEN AGAIN BY AMERICAN RESULTS AT MIDWAY

By CLARK LEE.
PEARL HARBOR, June 8.—(AP)—The smashing defeat imposed on Japan's navy by American air and sea power in the battle of Midway has undoubtedly brought greatly nearer the day when allied nations will be able to launch an all-out offensive against Japan.

The American triumph means that a corner has been turned in the second phase of the Pacific war—much sooner than many expected.

This second phase began in the Coral Sea after the fall of Java and the encirclement of the Philippines had ended the first stage—war on land.

The task of the United States then became twofold: first, to strengthen quickly what areas remained in control of the United Nations from Australia, through Hawaii, to Alaska; second, to cut down Japan's sea power to safe-guard those areas from attack and at the same time prepare for the eventual offensive.

Jap Fleet Crippled.
An effective though not decisive start toward this second objective was made in the battle of the Coral Sea. Now the battle of Midway has seriously crippled the Japanese fleet and especially the fleet air arm.

Aircraft played a principal part in both the Coral Sea and Midway operations, and a majority of the damage to enemy vessels was inflicted by dive bombers and torpedo planes, supported by land-based aircraft of all types.

Both battles proved the Japanese have no monopoly on tenacity and they are seriously crippled.

The Japs were not a hit-run engagement, but one in which the Americans sought and achieved decisive results by pressing home their

President Asks Additional Army Appropriations

WASHINGTON, June 8.—(AP)—President Roosevelt asked congress today for a new appropriation of $39,417,827.37 for the war department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943.

If granted his request, made in a memorandum to speaker Rayburn, would boost to more than $200,000,000 the war chest approved by congress for the three years ending June 30, 1943.

Previous appropriations and authorizations for the armed services are estimated by appropriations committee attaches at approximately $185,000,000,000.

In January the president asked for $38,001,747 for the war department's regular activities for the next fiscal year, with the understanding the amount would be increased.

Under the change in conditions which has since come about," he said in his letter of transmittal today, "such estimates fall far short of reflecting the estimated needs of the military establishment for 1943 and their complete division becomes necessary."

The largest single item in the total was $11,043,000, for the army air corps, but there was no detailed explanation of the manner in which the fund would be spent.

Legislation accompanying the request contained a provision that the secretaries of the war and navy departments be allowed to disallow salaries and bonuses paid to officers of employees of contracting firms who are paid a "in excess of a reasonable amount."

This provision would be used in determining what are excessive profits under war contracts. Previous legislation directs contractors found to have earned excessive

CHIEF ARMY AIR FORCES PRAISES AMERICAN MEN, CRAFT, AND PRODUCTION

MOUNT PLEASANT, Ia., June 8.—(AP)—Lieut. Gen. H. H. Arnold, commander of the United States Army air forces, declared here today that the worst of our out-pieces shot down, the Japs have lost four."

In an address prepared for the 100th annual commencement of Iowa Wesleyan College, at which he received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree, the general said "the day of reckoning is not as far off as some people think."

"I am telling Tokyo that we have thousands more Colin Kellys and Butch O'Hares and Jimmy Doolittles on the way. This is just the day of a day of waiting."

The general, who recently returned from Europe, said he "did not fly to London to go on the defensive."

"Raids like those on Cologne and Essen were just starters to those which were to follow. We are now making repeated reconnaissance raids and desperately resisting Russian attacks here, a Red Army officer told me on a visit to this base, one of the most active along the entire 2,000-mile Russian front."

The Germans fear a Russian threat from the salient stretching farther west than Smolensk, and are making every effort to find out the Soviet strength. "They are trying to keep meticulous check on troop movements."

The latest attack reported over the weekend was a reconnaissance in force, one of the largest local engagements in recent weeks. The Russians repulsed the assault, made by a full-fledged brigade supported by artillery and tanks.

The terrain of the Kalinin front still is held in the grip of a long, wet spring and is not yet suitable for large-scale operations.

SMASHING AMERICAN VICTORY AT MIDWAY TO HAVE DECISIVE EFFECTS ON BATTLE OF PACIFIC

By DEWITT MACKENZIE.
Wide World War Analyst.
The smashing American victory over the Japs off our base at Midway—an atoll that is minute in size but vast in defensive importance—has produced a decisive effect on the battle of the Pacific, which the men of Nippon started six months ago and now are finding difficult to finish when we are on the alert.

Indeed, on the face of returns thus far, no army in the punishment administered to the enemy off Midway that one has the rather justifiable urge to wave the flag a bit. However, naval operations also are proceeding off Dutch Harbor, and we shall do well to restrain our enthusiasm until we have the whole story.

While some points still are obscure, we get a fairly comprehensive picture of the general situation to date by combining the state-ments from Admiral King, commander in chief of the United States fleet, Admiral Nimitz, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, and news dispatches from in-

AMERICANS ALSO READYING TO ENTER BATTLE OF EUROPE

POWERFUL NIPPONESE TASK FORCE STUMBLED IN TO TRAP MIDWAY ISLAND

By CLYDE A. FARNSWORTH.
Associated Press War Editor.
The United States, toughened and tried by six months of largely defensive warfare since Pearl Harbor now seems to have wrested the initiative from Japan in the battle of the Pacific, at the same time readying for active entry into the battle of Europe.

The hard face of Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto, commander of the Japanese combined fleet, must indeed be lost today for having sent the bulk of his naval power into the destructive trap at Midway Island—a stumble that may have recast the balance of naval power in the Pacific.

The powerful Japanese task force evidently was under orders to occupy Midway Island as a stepping stone in eastward offensive strategy when combined sea and air forces of the United States struck it last week, and started running up a score which at latest tabulation, added up to the most humiliating defeat in Japanese naval history.

A few days and possibly four Japanese ships sunk and one or more damaged as against hits on an American aircraft carrier and loss of one American destroyer were tally last night when Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief of the U. S. Pacific fleet, announced that contact with the battered, fleeing enemy had been lost.

This, however, did not mean that pursuit had been abandoned. The rolling horizons of the Pacific veiled the course of the chase. It was likely that besides the Japanese ships already on the

HITLER'S BIG BLUNDER

Field Marshal Goering's account of the German blunders in Russia last winter, the full text of which was slow in reaching America, proves to be as remarkable a document as has appeared in this war. It is evident, from the frank statements therein given to the German people, that Hitler all but lost the war last winter.

He evidently plunged into that momentous Russian campaign without any knowledge of Russian weather, and in disregard of the warnings of his subordinates. The picture given of the sufferings endured by the Nazi troops in holding the Russian front, without proper equipment or clothing, is enough to bring pity to the hearts even of Hitler's enemies, along with their scorn for his ignorance. The German soldiers, who had to do what they were told, must have starved, frozen and died in tremendous numbers. The shock to their faith in their Leader must have been great.

Distant observers of that Russian situation cannot help concluding, from knowledge of human nature, that the Nazi army does not and cannot trust its leadership again as it did before this tragic Russian adventure. And such doubt naturally flows from the troops to the people. No wonder Hitler's army has seemed to lack its usual punch in recent battles, and the Germans at home are reported as sustained only by fear that they think the Führer will do to them if they do to them.

HELP FOR CHINA

With the Japanese now assaulting China again more strongly, in half a dozen places at once, it is time to take this situation seriously. And not merely for China's sake, but for our own. The Japs evidently hope, by a supreme effort, to strike China down quickly, achieving what they have been trying to do for five years at an enormous cost. They hope to crush the defenders before the United States and Britain can come to the rescue, and while Russia is still occupied with the Germans and cannot help China.

There is every reason why all possible help should be given. The Chinese, writes Spencer D. Irwin, a keen American war commentator, have shown their mettle. "What they have done with the meager resources at their disposal in five years of war is one of the wonders of the twentieth century. They do not ask for much. They are rapidly developing their own resources. But what they ask for had better be sent them."

He calls attention to the recent appeal of Dr. F. F. Tsiang, spokesman at Chung-king, for three things needed immediately. They are "first, fighter planes and bombers." That is very clear.

It is hard for this country to respond liberally, with all the Allies clamoring for assistance. But such help now will probably do more good in China than anywhere else, and may cut years from the duration of the world war.

It doesn't seem thrifty to cut the cuffs off men's pants and then let women wear full-length trousers.

OUR HISTORY

And what of us shall writers pen
 A century away?
 We fought for liberty for men
 And childhood's right to play!
 Against the force of dynamite
 And fearful tyrant rule,
 We were the last resource of right
 And home and church and school.

Some scholar, seeking truth, shall turn
 Old volumes eager-eyed
 In some dim library to learn
 How nearly freedom died.

And, in agreement, he may not
 His head above the paper
 And write: "We saved the world for God.
 And freedom for the ages."

FEAR IN BERLIN

From current accounts, the Nazi millennium doesn't seem to be doing so well. It is rotten with disease and frightful with crime. Reports from outside of Germany tell of a new reign of terror there, with Hitler and his henchmen growing desperate as the net of civilization slowly closes around him. "He that only rules by terror doeth grievous wrong," says the old poem. "Deep as hell I count his error." And hell seems to be coming now not only to the captive neighbors whom the Nazis rob and slaughter, but to the Germans themselves.

This along with news of the Gestapo's slaughter of Czechs for an attack made against the cruel Reinhard Heydrich, quaintly called "protector" of Bohemia and Moravia—a deed which seems natural in view of the circumstances—there is fear and slaughter in Berlin itself. Even the greatest there, below Hitler and Goering, are not safe from assassination. And the hand that kills them is apparently the hand of Hitler, however it may be concealed. There seems to be another epidemic of important members of the Nazi machine disappearing from sight and publicity and later reported as dead. Dorothy Thompson, well informed in that field, recently mentioned a surprising number of Hitler's former associates, many of them famous, who have gone down that lonely road.

Such killing, under whatever pretense, is a confession of weakness.

MEXICAN IMPORTANCE

Statesmen in Berlin are even dumber than usual in their present treatment of Mexico. They coolly announced last week by radio that declaration of war against the Axis by the Mexican government was "unimportant from a military viewpoint" because of "the well-known insignificance of Mexican armed forces."

Either diplomatic courtesy or diplomatic intelligence would recognize the indignation sure to be aroused in Mexico, and other Latin-American countries, by such an insulting statement. Along with the cold-blooded acts of aggression causing Mexico's self-respecting attitude, it strengthens and unifies Pan-American opposition to the Axis. Nearly all of the Latin-American nations have joined hands with the United States to drive the Axis from this hemisphere and keep it out. Even Argentina may yet rebel against Nazi and Fascist insolence and join her sister nations in opposition to the foreign destroyers.

EMILY AT THE FRONT

Better table manners may come out of the war. The American Institute of Laundering, meeting in Chicago, has asked diners to reduce wear and tear on tablecloths by leaning well over the plate.

The idea may be carried further. If guests refrain from eating with their knives, they will avoid unnecessary strain on vital war materials. And more care in eating soup will enable diners to dispense with soup-mufflers and thus conserve more war material for Uncle Sam. Emily Post should by all means be called into war service.

Isn't it time to start a movement for "A Rubber Plant in Every Home?"

Farmers Notice

Turkey and chicken coops are hard to get and costing more because of the shortage of nails and lumber. We will need more coops next fall on account of the new truck law which will stop many trucks from buying your turkeys on the farm. If you have turkey and chicken coops of yours, store them in a dry place or if you have coops belonging to us or A. B. Walker and Son please return them. We can repair them and store them so they will be available for you next fall. Returning coops will make money for everybody because it lowers the cost of handling poultry which makes a higher market for you.

DEHYDRATED MEAT TO BE SHIPPED TO LEASE-LEND NATIONS

By FRANKLIN MULLIN
 CHICAGO, June 5.—(P)—Disclosure that large scale lend-lease export of meat is at hand, through a revolutionary shipping space saving method of preparation by dehydration, was heralded in the packing industry today as a major development in the livestock meat trade.

Meat is to be dehydrated and shipped in containers requiring only a fraction of the cargo room needed for transportation of a corresponding quantity during the World War. Packers estimate enough meat can be packed into a military plane to feed a whole division in a limited period.

Of equal importance with the space saving feature was disclosure that beef would be shipped to American allies and armed forces. This attracted special attention in the cattle industry since up to now most lend-lease shipments have been pork and lard.

There were some estimates that the compressing of meat by the new process would permit shipment in one vessel of a quantity equivalent to the cargo of ten ships a quarter century ago.

The new method, developed by packers at the request of government officials, involves grinding of meat, pre-cooking and drying in air dryers or vacuum. This produces small palatable pellets to which it is necessary only to add water to make a substance almost identical to fresh ground meat.

Packers believe the dehydrated product eventually may become popular with domestic consumers. Their kitchen experts have worked out numerous menus for dishes including meat loaf, hamburger, hash, and combinations with vegetables.

According to the American Meat Institute, government lend-lease buyers are expected to be in the market shortly for both dehydrated beef and pork.

House Refuses Vote Funds For Continuing CCC

WASHINGTON, June 5.—(P)—Supporting a recommendation from its appropriations committee, the house refused today to vote funds to keep the depression-born Civilian Conservation Corps going on a reduced basis during the war.

By teller vote of 158 to 121 the house rejected an amendment by Representative Tarver (D-Ga) to add a $75,818,000 allotment for the CCC to the $1,056,451,660 supply bill for the labor department, social security board, and kindred federal agencies.

The appropriations committee, by a three vote margin, had recommended the elimination of all the CCC funds.

Justice Byrnes said, "The transportation company asserted that it had paid a weekly wage large enough to provide the minimum wage required for regular time and time and one-half for all overtime worked. Under the law, time and one-half must be paid after 40 hours each week, based on 'the regular' rate of employment."

"When employer and employees," Justice Byrnes said, "have agreed upon an arrangement which has proven mutually satisfactory, it should not be upset and approved an inflexible and artificial interpretation of the act which finds no support in its text and which as a practical matter eliminates the possibility of steady income to employees with irregular hours."

Justice Byrnes said congress had failed to provide a definition of "regular rate" of pay under the wage hour act and that the company was within its rights in negotiating a regular hourly rate with its employees.

"Presumably congress refrained from attempting such a definition," Justice Byrnes said, "because the employment relationships which the act would apply were so various and unpredictable."

"And that which it was unwise for congress to do, this court should not do. x x x"

"Where the question is as close as this one, it is well to follow the congressional lead and to afford the fullest possible scope to agreements among the individuals who are actually affected."

This policy is based upon common sense recognition of the special problems confronting employer and employee in businesses where the work hours fluctuate from week to week and from day to day.

Many such employees value the security of a regular weekly income. They want to operate on a family budget, to make commitments for payments on homes and automobiles and insurance."

"Congress has said nothing to prevent this desirable objective. This court should not."

Justice Reed, in the dissenting opinion, said that since the wage-hour act provides that "overtime pay must at least equal time and a half the regular rate, and that employer and employee may not be permitted to contract in avoidance of the statutory requirement."

Joining in Reed's dissent were Justices Black, Douglas and Murphy.

Reed said that by the "device" of the Belo contract, "astute management may avoid many of the disadvantages of ordinary overtime, chief of which is a definite increase in the cost of labor as soon as the hours worked exceed the statutory work week."

"If the intention of congress," Reed wrote, "is to require at least time and a half for overtime work beyond a fixed maximum number of hours that intention is frustrated by today's holding."

Government officials had contended that an adverse decision would "frustrate" what was called "one of the main purposes of the wage-hour act—to discourage overtime work."

The federal wage-hour administration contended that overtime compensation should be based on an hourly wage computed by dividing the weekly salary by the number of hours worked regardless of how much the weekly salary exceeded the amount required by the act.

Salary Guaranteed. Counsel for the Belo Corporation said the company had guaranteed a weekly salary above the amount required by the wage-hour act and that the agreed hourly rates were intended to permit the employees to continue to receive the same salary paid before the legislation.

He gave no indication how long it might take the President to complete his survey. Mr. Roosevelt has hinted that nationwide gasoline rationing might be necessary as a means of conserving tires, but he indicated that any decision would be withheld until he had gone more carefully into the problem involved.

The committee of which Kleberg is chairman was authorized by 135 house members who met Friday to consider the rubber-gasoline situation. Inquiries that have come to him since, Kleberg said, make it safe to say that 250 members feel the same way about conditions.

East coast motorists will get an average basic rationing of nearly four gallons of gasoline a week, said Dean, who explained, since system starting next month. Joel Dean, OPA fuel rationing administrator, said today.

Under the present temporary program, non-essential drivers are allowed about three gallons weekly.

Dean told reporters the additional ration would be permitted because of tighter controls made possible under the new plan. Considerably fewer "B" coupons will be issued, Dean explained, since motorists will be required to prove need for "supplemental allowances."

"They must show to the satisfaction of local rationing boards that use of their cars is required in their business, that they have earned transportation 'pools' of not less than four persons, or that no other means of transportation is available to get them to and from work."

The East Coast plan, expected to serve as a model of nationwide rationing is instituted, is based on an allowance of 2,880 miles of

went into effect.

In most instances, it was said, the hourly rate was obtained by dividing the weekly guaranteed salary by 60. This arrangement was intended to limit overtime work to the number of hours that had been worked each week before the act became effective and to the "irregular" hours of newspaper and radio employees.

It was contended by the Belo corporation that if the act were intended to limit overtime work such a purpose was "square in the face of the needs of national defense."

The justice department replied: "It is submitted that this court is not an inappropriate forum in which to debate the merits of a congressional policy which has been so clearly expressed and which, if change were contemplated, would not doubt be the subject of careful legislative study."

Both the federal district court at Dallas and the fifth federal circuit court ruled against the government.

driving a year for the average "non-essential" motorist.

Basic "A" books will be issued to every passenger car driver who registers. These will contain 41 coupons, each good for four gallons of gasoline.

The "B" books, containing 11 coupons, will be issued on evidence of need and will be used in addition to the basic "A" book. East "B" book, however, will be dated, depending upon the local ration boards estimate of the applicant's gasoline requirements.

Thus, one "B" book would be used only for three months, while another would be good for a year. A third "C" book, containing 30 coupons, likewise will be "tailored" to fit absolute requirements.

On the basis of the motorists' proved mileage requirements, the local board will tear out coupons if necessary to cut the "C" book down to the driver's needs.

All commercial trucks, including trucks, taxicabs, buses and government-operated automobiles, will receive "S" books—likewise tailored to fit.

All "C" books will be reviewed and released every three months; "S" books will be reviewed and released every four months.

He gave no indication how long it might take the President to complete his survey. Mr. Roosevelt has hinted that nationwide gasoline rationing might be necessary as a means of conserving tires, but he indicated that any decision would be withheld until he had gone more carefully into the problem involved.

The committee of which Kleberg is chairman was authorized by 135 house members who met Friday to consider the rubber-gasoline situation. Inquiries that have come to him since, Kleberg said, make it safe to say that 250 members feel the same way about conditions.

East coast motorists will get an average basic rationing of nearly four gallons of gasoline a week, said Dean, who explained, since system starting next month. Joel Dean, OPA fuel rationing administrator, said today.

Under the present temporary program, non-essential drivers are allowed about three gallons weekly.

Dean told reporters the additional ration would be permitted because of tighter controls made possible under the new plan. Considerably fewer "B" coupons will be issued, Dean explained, since motorists will be required to prove need for "supplemental allowances."

"They must show to the satisfaction of local rationing boards that use of their cars is required in their business, that they have earned transportation 'pools' of not less than four persons, or that no other means of transportation is available to get them to and from work."

The East Coast plan, expected to serve as a model of nationwide rationing is instituted, is based on an allowance of 2,880 miles of

went into effect.

In most instances, it was said, the hourly rate was obtained by dividing the weekly guaranteed salary by 60. This arrangement was intended to limit overtime work to the number of hours that had been worked each week before the act became effective and to the "irregular" hours of newspaper and radio employees.

SEEKERS OF CANNING SUGAR MUST BE ABLE ANSWER QUESTIONS

COLLEGE STATION, June 8.—(Spl.)—Homemakers canning fruit this year will save themselves time and trouble if they do some advance preparation before applying to their local rationing board for certificates.

"Be prepared to answer these three questions when you go," advised Winifred Jones, specialist in food preservation for the A. and M. Extension Service. How many quarts of fruit did you use last year? How many quarts of fruit do you plan to can this year? How many quarts of last year's fruit do you still have on hand? Another word of advice is: "Keep a record of the fruit you can with your rationed sugar because your rationing board will ask for it when you apply for more sugar."

Answering these questions will be relatively simple for the thousands of rural homemakers who have kept records and filled food preservation budgets as recommended by county home demonstration agents of the Extension Service. Rural homemakers may stretch their sugar allowances by using thinner syrups for canning fruits and fruit juices and by using corn syrup or honey as substitutes in canning recipes, Miss Jones says. Information on these methods can be obtained from county home demonstration agents. She warns that saccharin, a coal tar product with an extremely sweet taste, cannot be used in canning because it becomes bitter when heated.

Here is the specialist's summary of the rationing regulations as they apply for sugar canning: "You will get one pound of sugar for every four quarts of finished fruit you are putting up, and you may can as much fruit as your family needs. You may have an additional pound of sugar for each person in your family to make a small supply of jams, jellies and fruit butters."

PLANT SOME HOT WEATHER VEGETABLE URGES ROSBOROUGH

COLLEGE STATION, June 8.—(Spl.)—Sharpen the hoes and plant some hot weather vegetables to come along after the spring garden has burned up or gone to seed, J. P. Rosborough, horticulturalist of the A. and M. College Extension Service, advises home gardeners.

Summer leaf lettuce of the Grand Rapids variety will produce young, tender leaves in three or four weeks, he says. Other vegetables which should be planted at this time for a late crop of the best quality are tendergreen mustard and squash. If a larger assortment of summer time eating is desired, plant butter beans, okra, green pepper, eggplant, cream peas and cantaloupes along with them.

If certain spring plantings are not repeated, use those spaces for planting hot weather vegetables. For example, English peas may be followed with cream peas, and after white potatoes are dug, use that ground for cream peas also while the soil is well worked up. If plants of green pepper and eggplant are available, use them and thereby hasten production three or four weeks.

Cantaloupes for breakfast, the horticulturalist says, has the same place in the diet as tomatoes or oranges, or other fruit juices. The Perfecto variety, which has a tender, highly flavored, salmon colored flesh, is recommended.

Rosborough reminds that it is good garden practice to give plants which grow into the summer months an extra meal of plant food. For tomato plants apply about a half tencup of fertilizer, like 6-12-6 in a circle 12 or 18 inches away from the plant and mix into the soil about six inches with a hoe.

Watering the more tender vegetables such as lettuce, mustard, etc., during hot weather will hasten growth and improve quality.

UT Medical School Has Not Lost Rating

GALVESTON, June 8.—(Spl.)—Dean John W. Spies of the University of Texas medical school said last night the school had not lost its class rating by being placed on probation by the council of medical education of the American medical association.

After he learned of the action of the A. M. A., Spies said: "I am particularly anxious for students and graduates to know that they are eligible for licensing."

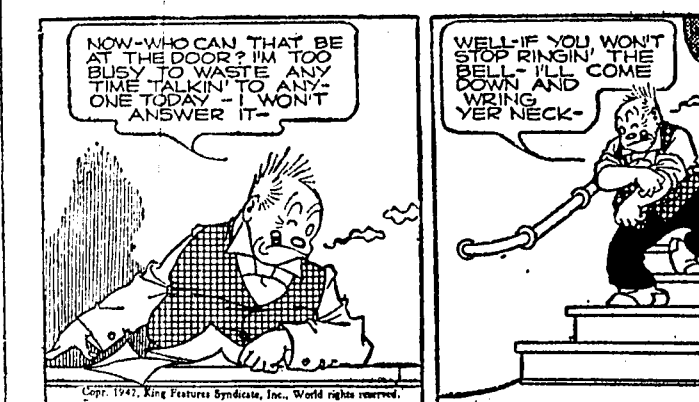

"The institution can be taken off probation at the next meeting of the A. M. A. which will probably be held in November."

President Homer P. Raibley of the University of Texas, who was advised in Austin, said he hoped that "action taken by the university regents last Friday night, establishing a vice-presidency in charge of the medical branch and settling in other ways some of the issues growing out of the long-standing controversy in Galveston, should soon cause our status with A. M. A. to be changed."

There were 76 patients admitted, including 24 charity. Collections were $1,018.79, and bills ordered paid amounted to $2,435.02. Charity by the hospital was listed at $865.25 while the free services by physicians amounted to $1,573.94.

BUFFALO GRASS HAS BEEN SUCCESSFULLY SEEDING THIS SECTOR

Buffalo grass has been successfully seeded on several local farms. This grass does well on this country, especially on the blackland soils. It is more adapted to the hillides since it won't stand sitting very well.

W. C. Pearce, one of the five supervisors of the Navarro-Hill Soil Conservation District, has seeded ten acres of Buffalo grass on his farms near Richland. He states the grass makes a close, even turf, produces a large amount of nutritious forage that is relished by livestock and forms an effective erosion-resistant sod.

To determine the value of using scarified seed, Mr. Pearce found this made a complete cover of sod in one year as compared to a fifty per cent cover of the unscarified seed. He attributes this difference to a higher germination percentage of the scarified seed.

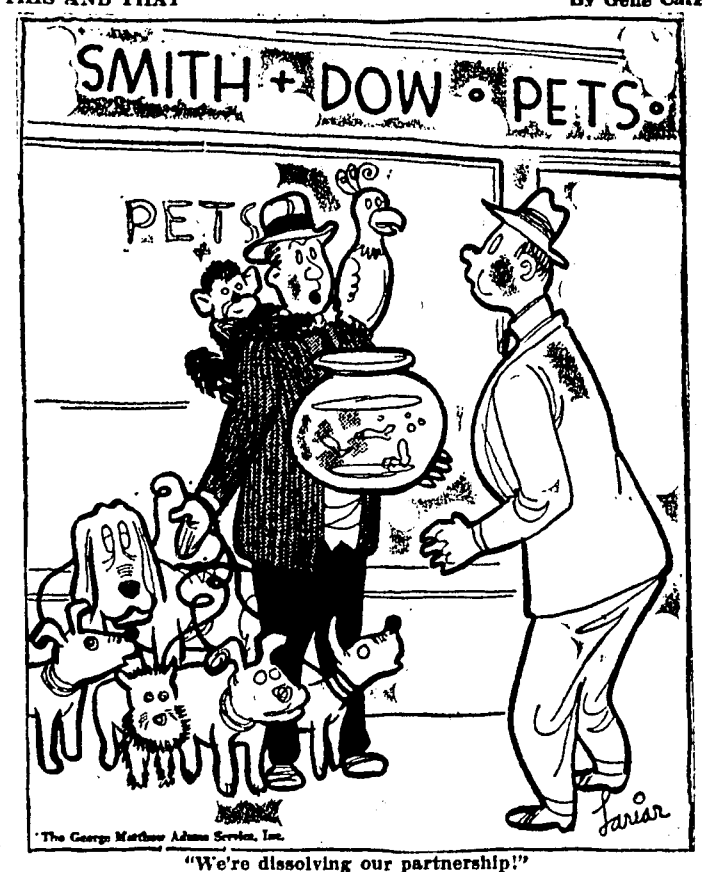

He has found that the grass will spread more rapidly if grazed by sheep, the roots being picked up in wet weather by the sheep's feet and transplanted to new areas. During seeding time, the seed attaches to the wool and is likewise scattered.

A native of Sherman, he resided there all of his life except 15 years spent in Corsicana where he was associated with the Corsicana National Bank and served as mayor during the oil boom in the early 1920's, was president of the Rotary Club and of the Navarro County Fair.

Enemy Aliens Tell Some Funny Stories

HOUSTON, June 8.—(AP)—Federal officials are still chuckling over the case of a German enemy alien electrician arrested in a recent raid, who didn't want to go to an internment camp. No, he wanted to be assigned to the electric light system of a Texas Gulf Coast army airport.

And then there's the story of an Italian alien grocer who didn't trust himself. He explained to Houston officers—after they found $1,200 in cash hidden in his store—that he wasn't able to write very well and feared he wouldn't be able to write checks to get his money out of the banks.

Scattered Rains In Navarro County Past Three Days

Local showers have been falling in various sections of Navarro county for the past three days. In Corsicana the total rainfall for the 72 hour period ending at 7 o'clock Monday morning was 1.04 inches. Some sections of the county report a heavier fall and other sections much less.

There were several interruptions of the power and light service in Corsicana during the electrical storm that accompanied the rain here Sunday night. Service was restored in all sections of the city within a short time and only minor damage was done. Texas Power & Light officials reported.

Plenty of top-soil mixture for growing crops and to bring up late planted cotton was furnished in a large per cent of the county by the showers, but a general rain is needed, according to farmers.

Pastures are in good condition and the showers will keep grass growing.

The oat crop has been harvested and only about half a crop has been produced, according to H. Robinson, county agent. Mr. Robinson said that cotton was spotted and that in some places the stand was poor. He expects the rain to help bring up late planted cotton and improve conditions generally.
